All gifts of $1,000 or more will be recognized on a permanent, centralized recognition display. All less than $1,000 will be printed in the Donor Publication Book, on display at the Center. Naming opportunities are available for your review through the Allamakee County Conservation Board's office. All gifts will be put towards the Foundation's endowment. The endowment is used to provide quality recreational and environmental education opportunities for all Allamakee county residents and visitors.
